This program provides classroom presentations and scenario based training in the interception of narcotics. It outlines programs and techniques utilized to assist narcotic officers in developing partnerships with the business community in identifying violators, who use legitimate businesses to facilitate narcotic trafficking. The course will outline comprehensive investigative techniques to identify behavior and conduct of the drug violator in various key setting to include hotels/motels, airports, commercial bus stations, parcel/package businesses, storage facilities, rental car agencies, and train stations. The program also provides instruction in knock and talks, asset forfeiture, currency seizures and the role of the narcotic canine. In addition, it will provide legal foundation for the techniques, to include constitutional procedure, search and seizure, and fourth amendment issues.

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Understand the procedures for search and seizure as well as the guidelines of fourth amendment and the legal foundations for such practices.
2. Identify required resources and equipment for a domestic drug interdiction program.
3. Understand the criteria for selecting personnel as well as recognize personnel considerations, including canine selection.
