ARTICLE I - NAME

This organization shall be known as the "WOR-WIC COMPUTER CLUB".

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

Said organization is established for computer literacy and social purposes with an emphasis on the development of responsibility, understanding of college dynamics, and community service in its members. The following sections better describe this intent:

Section 1. Computer literacy, in any form, is a significant competency available to nearly everyone who is fortunate enough to have access to computers. It is the purpose of this club to unite those that enjoy computer expertise, to promote computer literacy in the eyes of the community, and to make readily available this media in the form of instruction and guidance to those who so desire. It is our belief that everyone should have the opportunity to enjoy the thrills of computing.

Section 2. In as much that computers are an integral part of American culture, it is our duty to enlighten the student body and faculty of the college to the diversity of the computer and its uses in our world today. Inversely, it is important for students to become active in the college, which we aspire to accomplish through participation in club projects.

Section 3. We recognize that we can enhance the college’s relations with our community, and generate businesses’ awareness of our graduates’ abilities. The members of this club will participate in community service activities such as youth computer camps for area children, and other services in which computer skills are needed. Our members will also introduce students to local area businesses.
ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

All currently enrolled students of WOR-WIC COMMUNITY COLLEGE (WWCC) are eligible for membership. Those who are not currently enrolled students of WWCC are not eligible for membership unless they are alumni of the college since 1985. Some club activities may be designated "open", in which case individuals who are not members may participate.

To be an "active" member, all dues must be received by the treasurer for that current term. Only active members will be allowed to participate in club activities, including all voting procedures.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS, VACANCIES, COMMITTEES

Section 1. Elective officers in this club shall be for the president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, librarian, and public relations.

Section 2. Elections will be held at the beginning of each fall semester concurrent with WWCC classes. Current office runs from September 1 to August 31 of the following year.

Section 3. The duties of the officers shall consist of, but not limited to, the duties usually assumed by the officers of other organizations of this type.

Section 4. In case of a vacancy within the term of office of the president, the vice-president shall assume the duties of the president until the next general election of the offices of the club. In the case of a vacancy of the other offices, an election will be held at the next regular meeting of the club.

Section 5. In case of misconduct of an officer, an impeachment process may be initiated by submitting a written affidavit to the Executive Board.

Section 6. At different times it may be necessary to create committees to handle special interests of the club. These committees should be formed from members of the club on a volunteer basis, however, the officers of the club shall have the right to appoint club members when such action is necessary.

ARTICLE V - MEETINGS

Meetings shall be held a minimum of once per month on a date voted most convenient by current members. All active members must be accounted for in this vote. Additional meeting may be called as club interest indicates. Meeting structure will be determined by the current president.
ARTICLE VI - VOTING

A quorum of 60% club membership is needed to vote on a subject. Any matter concerning club policy and finances will be voted by the complete membership using mail-in ballots as necessary. Emergency and procedural issues will be presented to the Executive Board for timely decisions.

ARTICLE VII - EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board shall consist of duly elected officers of the club and staff advisor. Any member of the Executive Board may request a special meeting of the Executive Board, whereby decision deemed critical to the club performance may be made by the Executive Board without any attendance by other club members.

ARTICLE VIII - AMENDMENTS

The Constitution may be amended by the following procedure:

1. Majority approval of the Executive Board.
2. Approval by the majority of the voting members, excluding the Executive Board.
3. Approval by the Wor-Wic Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IX - RATIFICATION

This Constitution will stand ratified upon approval of the Wor-Wic Community College Board of Trustees.
