Role-Playing Game Association of Wor-Wic Constitution

Article I – Name
The name of this organization shall be The Role-Playing Game Association of Wor-Wic (RPGAW).

Article II - Purpose
The purpose of the organization is to educate students about the roots of popular games on the market today, promote creativity, enhance literacy through its collaborative storytelling, and to provide a healthy atmosphere for role-playing.

Article III – Membership
Membership is open to Wor-Wic students, alumni and employees with an interest in participating in role-playing and games, however, only currently enrolled Wor-Wic students may vote on club related business or hold office in this club. Members may join at any time. Members must abide by the following:

1. Respect all members as one would wish to be respected.
2. Play fairly and show good sportsmanship. The point of role-playing is not to win but to have fun.
3. The Game Master (GM), selected by vote of the participants at the start of each game, will have final say on all game rulings.
4. Leave all personal issues at the door. Anything said or done while in character should not be taken into real life.
5. Any and all on-campus rules must be respected.

Article IV – Executive Board
1. The executive board shall consist of the following:
   - President: Head of all club affairs.
   - Vice President: Relays information to and from the president and acts in president’s place when the president is absent.
   - Secretary: Records all necessary information during club meetings.
   - Treasurer: Responsible for reporting and requesting club finances.

2. Eligibility
   Members of the Executive Board must be currently enrolled Wor-Wic Community College students. Members of the Executive Board must maintain an overall grade point average of 2.0 or above.

3. Term of Office
   Officers shall serve a term of one year beginning in September and terminating in August of the following year.

4. Election of Officers
   The Executive Board will be elected in September except in the case of vacancies.
5. Removal from Office
   A. Grounds for Removal of officers
      1. Neglecting Responsibilities
      2. Not maintaining a GPA of 2.0
   B. Procedures for Removal
      1. Written charges will be presented to organization members.
      2. The advisor will notify the officer in question of the charges, and allow one week for the officer to respond.
         i. If the officer does not respond to the advisor within one week, then the officer will automatically be removed from office creating a vacancy.
      3. A meeting will be announced and held for the officer to disclaim the charges and to hold a vote.
      4. The vote must pass by the majority of all attending members.

6. Vacancies
   In case of vacancy within the term of office of the president, the vice-president shall assume the duties of the president until the next general election of the officers of the club. In case of a vacancy of the other offices, the president or acting president will preside until an election is held at the next regular meeting of the club.

Article V - Meetings
Meetings will be held weekly. Game sessions will begin 30 minutes after general meeting each week. The RPGAW will be governed by the majority vote of all members present.
All members may participate in meetings of the RPGAW Club and may vote for elected members of the Executive Board (President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary).

Article VI – Amendments
The following outlines the procedure for amending the constitution.
   1. Any member may propose an amendment to the constitution.
   2. A special meeting should be called to discuss the amendment (s).
   3. A majority vote of attendees is required to approve amendment (s).
   4. Any amendment (s) must be approved by Wor-Wic Community College Board of Trustees prior to implementation.
   5. The secretary shall revise the constitution.

Adopted – March 13, 2008

Revised