Registered for an online class?

Complete the checklist below to get started with your class:

- Watch your mail and/or Wor-Wic e-mail for correspondence from your instructor regarding getting started in your online course.

- If this is your first online class you must complete one of the following:

  OR

  - Review the “Orientation and Blackboard Tutorial” located on the Wor-Wic “Distance Education Orientation” web pages (go to Wor-Wic home page at www.worwic.edu → click “Academics” (on left) → click “Distance Education” → click “Orientation and Blackboard Tutorial”).

- Check Blackboard course availability dates:

  Blackboard course sections are available to students each semester according to a schedule that is posted on the Blackboard login page.

  - To review the Blackboard Login page for course availability dates

  - When your course becomes available, login to your course in Blackboard:
    Go to the Blackboard Login page → enter your User name and Password → click Ok (if you don’t know your user name and password, contact Student Services using the Contact Us link at the bottom of the Wor-Wic homepage, select the “Username/Password Help” subject.)

  - Read course syllabus and/or complete the course orientation

  - E-mail your instructor in Blackboard if you have questions about the course
