This course is designed for law enforcement and non-law enforcement personnel. This course addresses the "Run Hide Fight" response paradigm and guides non-traditional first responders in the various ways these methods can be employed. Because active threat incidents can occur anywhere, participants are encouraged to apply principles from this course to plans and procedures in their workplaces. The course covers the basic principles of the response paradigm as it pertains to response in the event of an active threat incident.

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Describe the need for an effective response paradigm to combat active threat incidents.

2. Identify the principles of the “Run Hide Fight” response paradigm in the event of an active threat incident.
3. Identify the preparedness cycle with the “Run Hide Fight” response paradigm to improve the chances of surviving an active threat incident.
4. Demonstrate the “Run Hide Fight” response paradigm based on active threat incident characteristics.

This course is designed to meet requirements as mandated by the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions and to meet the annual in-service requirements.

Class Size: Restricted size, seating is limited.

Attendance: You must attend the entire class to receive in-service credit.

Dress Code:

To maintain a professional appearance, all in-service officers/staff must follow the prescribed dress code to be admitted to any training held at the Academy.

- Uniform of the day recommended
- Shirt with a collar—No t-shirts or tank tops
- Docker style pants, BDU’s or suit—No shorts or jeans
- Full shoe with socks—No sandals

Firearms—All officers wearing a handgun on campus in plain view MUST also wear his/her badge in plain view.

Failure to Adhere to the Dress Code

Academy attendees will be denied admittance to the classroom or range and a report will be sent to the Chief/Sheriff/Warden/Director, stating the reasons the officer/staff was not allowed to attend the training session.

Register online with NCBRT. Instructions attached.
